

JOB DESCRIPTION

Position: Teacher of Music

Report to: Assistant Head Teacher Primary [QH1]

Job Overview:

The Music teacher is responsible for delivering music lessons and services to students in line with the music framework in place at EMASI Schools. The music framework has been adapted from the International Cambridge Curricular Framework with integration from MOET where necessary.

The music teacher will plan and teach music lessons delivered in English across all grades. The teacher will assist students to achieve their individual academic excellence, and foster their personal academic excellence while demonstrating a strong commitment to developing visual arts skills. The assistant music teacher will work with relevant classes and Home Room teachers to prepare for and organize rehearsals for special events as outlines in the school calendar.

Responsibilities and Duties:

The music teacher will be required to exercise her/his professional skills and judgement to carry out, in a collaborative manner, the professional duties set out below:

A member of the teaching staff team has the following academic responsibilities:

- To provide an organised, disciplined and stimulating environment in the classroom
- To promote practical first-hand experiences and other educationally appropriate activities for individual and group learning
- To provide consistent learning opportunities for all pupils
- To have facility on guitar and/or keyboard
- To make written and/or oral assessments and evaluations of individual pupils and of the class as a whole
- To support and promote public performances in the school and the community
- To keep detailed and updated lesson plans and records of group and individual work with the pupils.
- To provide regular assessment feedback to pupils in line with school policy and use this to inform future learning.
- To offer support and input to the development of a broad, balanced, relevant and differentiated curriculum.
- Under the direction of the line-manager/ subject coordinator to take responsibilities for designated areas and aspects of the subject of which he/she is a member.
- To take responsibility for the care, upkeep and development of school materials and resources.
- To assist and support the process of examination and class work moderation both internally and externally.
- To work with fellow colleagues in a spirit of mutual cooperation to maintain and enhance a pleasant professional working environment.
- To substitute for absent colleagues when necessary.
- To undertake any other reasonable task or duty as instructed by the School or designated line manager
- To attend punctually on all occasions agreed in the contract and as reasonably requested by the School or designated line manager
- To complete all admin tasks by the school's required timelines.
- To assist and support the technical requirements of public performance and have familiarity with microphones, sound balancing, and other technical aspects

A member of the teaching staff has the following pastoral responsibilities.

- To carry out fully and efficiently pastoral and administrative duties as assigned by the line manager.
- To be responsible for a reasonable number of playground, lunch and other duties as may be required.
- To fully support all musical performances.
- To support and implement the positive behaviour policy.
- To undertake any other reasonable task as instructed by the line manager and/or School Leadership.

Qualifications:

- A degree in music
- Recognised teaching qualification.

Experience:

- One year teaching experience with relevant age group and subject.
- Experience working with Cambridge or internationally recognized music curriculum is an advantage.

Competencies:Knowledge and skills:

- Genuine interest the specific field from both a pedagogical and theoretical perspective;
- Competency on piano, guitar, or similar instruments;
- The ability to work well with faculty and staff from diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds and be resilient, resourceful and have an optimistic personality;
- Health & Safety, SEN and Child Protection procedures;
- The ability to cooperate and work with the diverse group of colleagues
- Effective teaching and learning styles.
- Commit and contribute to EMASI Group of Schools within the context of its mission;
- Establish and develop close relationships with parents and the wider community;
- Communicate effectively (both orally and in writing) to a variety of audiences;
- Create a happy, challenging and effective learning environment;
- Use ICT in a professional context and to support Learning and Teaching;

Personal characteristics:

- Dynamic and enthusiastic
- Approachable and proactive

- Empathetic and patient
- Organised and resourceful

